

Ways WWEX Makes Life Easier

Small Package Shipping Headaches? Get Relief With WWEX.

At Worldwide Express (WWEX), we're experts on all things small package shipping — including the most common pain points for small and mid-sized business (SMB) shippers. Read on to learn how WWEX helps SMBs relieve even the biggest parcel shipping headaches.

Pain #1: Rate and Services

As the largest non-retail UPS® authorized reseller in the U.S., when you partner with WWEX, you get access to exclusive features and cost-saving benefits for practically any UPS shipping option you choose. And you can access it all on our easy-to-use, online SpeedShip® platform.

Pain #3: Shipment Issues

While shipping issues are sometimes inevitable, there's no need to navigate them on your own. With the help of your dedicated WWEX operations team, your small package logistics will be handled by experts in the industry. Whether it's filing a shipping claim or tracking down a delayed package, WWEX is here to help.

Pain #2: Managing Invoices

Drowning in invoices? WWEX offers a variety of customizable invoice types so you can get all the information you need (and none that you don't) in one convenient place. With our summary invoice, you can even aggregate your shipments by reference code for easy cost allocation down the road.

Pain #4: Industry Best Practices

Odds are, you didn't start your SMB to become a full-time shipping manager. That's where WWEX comes in! We stay up to date on important industry news and best practices so you don't have to. We'll make sure your shipping logistics are running smoothly and efficiently, so you can focus on what you do best.
